BiP: Program on Methods on Urban Health Autumn 2026

The BIP is split into a preparatory, a post-processing virtual and an on-site phase in Bochum, Germany.

PrePhase

A preliminary online meeting will take place on September 23th, 6:00 pm.
After that, we start with a virtual learning component including basic readings and with sharing fields of interests of all participants. The idea is to start developing small research projects based on using the photovoice method on physical activities in the home-towns.
